

National Outcome

We grow up loved, safe and respected, so that we reach our full potential.

Vision

The Children and Families Directorate aims to get it right for every child. We put children, young people and their families at the centre of our work.

How

The Children and Families Directorate does this by engaging, listening, communicating, collaborating, co-designing and co-producing with...

Who

Children, young people, parents, families, carers, providers of children's services and practitioners, communities and Ministers to...

- Embed prevention, early intervention and support
- Improve health and wellbeing for children, young people and pregnant women
- Ensure all children and young people are able to have fulfilling and nurturing relationships
- Ensure all of Scotland's children and young people are protected and feel safe
- Safeguard and promote the welfare of the child or young person

What

- Support everyone to achieve better Outcomes for children and young people in need of care and protection
- Respect, protect and fulfil the rights of all children and young people and support equality
- Ensure our work to improve children's lives is based on the best possible evidence
- Ensure the workforce is skilled and supported
- Ensure we deliver an effective and efficient public service
