

Date

Wednesday 1st November 2023

Time

12:00 – 1:30pm

Target audience

Practitioners who work with children, young people and families

Registration

Please register your interest to attend by using the button or QR code below. Registration closes on Monday 30th October at 12:00 noon

The Women, Children, Young People and Families (WYCYPF) team in NHS Education for Scotland (NES) are delighted to be hosting a webinar focussing on rights based participation for infants, children and young people.

This webinar series aims to:

- Increase awareness of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (Article 12)
- Increase awareness of approaches to enable meaningful participation of children and young people
- Improve awareness of the voice of the infant best practice guidance

Women, children, young people and families

Webinar series

Topic:

The voice of the infant and child

Rights based participation for children and young people

Presenters:

Professor Laura Lundy

Professor of International Children's Rights, Queen's University, Belfast

Dr Anne McFadyen

Infant Mental Health Clinical Advisor, Scottish Government

Margot McKay

Director of Talking Mats

Gina Wilson

Head of Strategy, Children and Young People's Commissioner (Scotland)